Berlin, April 5, N. S.

M. L'Etang, the French Minister, is arrived here in his Way from Petersbourg to Paris. Since the Poles have left the Banks of the Oder, there have been no Accounts that can be depended upon concerning their Motions. On Tuesday last the Court removed from hence to Potzdam, where they will reside, as usual, till the Time of the general Review.

Hague, April 12, N. S. The Right Honourable Hortio Walpole, Esq; arrived here this Afternoon. The Assembly of the States of Holland remains fixed to Thursday next. The Place of Deputy of Zealand for Life to the Assembly of the States General, which the late M. van Borselen had, is conferred upon M. Buttens, who has accordingly taken his Seat in that Assembly.

St. James's, April 3.

This Day the Baron de Hasberg, Chamberlain to the Duke of Brunswick Wolfenbuttel, sent to notify the Death of his Predecessor, and his own Accession, had his first private Audience of his Majesty, to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Harrington, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

He had afterwards a private Audience of the Queen, being introduc'd to her Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Grantham, her Majesty's Lord Chamberlain, and conducted by the Master of the Ceremonies.

As he was afterwards to a private Audience of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

Admiralty Office, March 27, 1735.

These are to give Notice, that my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have given Directions, that the R's put against the Names of such Men who belong'd to His Majesty's Fleet, and have absented themselves from without Leave, or staid longer from their Duty than the Leave given them by their Captains, shall be turned into D's, if the said Men return to their proper Ships on or before the 12th Day of April next; otherwise they will forfeit their Wages, and be proceeded against as Deserters from his Majesty's Service.

By Command of their Lordships,

J. Burchett.

Navy-Office, April 2, 1735.

The Rt. Hon. the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury having appointed Money for paying of Half Pay to Sea Officers from the First of July 1734, to the 31st of December 1734, according to his late Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf; These are to give Notice, that the said Payment will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broad-street, at Nine a-Clock in the Morning, the following Days, viz. on Monday the 21st of this Month for the Captains, Tuesday the 22d for the Lieutenants, and Wednesday the 23d for the Masters and Surgeons, that all Persons concerned may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required, touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid the said Half Pay, but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to his present Majesty. And in Case any of the said Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.

Wine Licence Office, April 3, 1733.

All Persons owing or engaged for Arrears of Rent for Wine Licences, or whose Licences are expired, are hereby required to take Notice, that if they do not pay their said Arrears, and renew their said Licences with all Speed, they will be forthwith prosecuted for the same. And whereas his Majesty's Commissioners for Wine Licences have received certain Information of divers Persons presuming to retail Wine without Licence, and to whom Letters have been sent advertising them of the Penalties incurred thereby: These are also to give Notice, that unless such Persons do speedily apply themselves to the said Commissioners, the Laws in such Cases made and provided will be forthwith put in Execution.

The Paymaster of the Lottery Anno 1710, gives Notice, that he hath Money reserv'd in his Hands to pay off the Annuities on Benefit Tickets which became due at Lady-day last past.
